

THE SCHOOL AT MARYGROVE

STUDENT & FAMILY NEWS
MARCH, 2021

Learning Center Reopens, February 24, 2021

Greetings TSM Huskies,

During the month of March we celebrate Women's History Month. We recognize the contributions of women in all aspects of life and hold their achievements up as examples for all our students. During this month's Morning Announcements, well-known, and not so well-known women will be featured and discussed. Students can sign up to present on a woman of their choice by contacting Mr. Yancey via Teams. This month is also Reading Month. We encourage students and families to read as much as possible, even joining together to form book clubs or discussions. Research has shown that students that have strong reading abilities do well in all subjects (not just English Language Arts) and even have a greater chance of excelling in postsecondary learning. Reading is definitely the #MarygroveWay!

Finally, TSM's Parent Teacher Association is on the move and looking for more parent participation. Monthly meetings are held on the first Monday of each month, 6:30-7:30pm. The link to join the meeting is here: TSM PTA Monthly Meetings

In partnership,
Ms. White

"We all have dreams. In order to make dreams come into reality, it takes an awful lot of determination, dedication, self-discipline and effort."

SAVE THE DATE!
PARENT-TEACHER CONFERENCES
MARCH 17
9:00 AM – 5:00 PM

According to the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, these best practice strategies are helping to keep TSM Huskies engaged during online learning. TSM instructors are on track with using national best practices. Shout to out teachers for keeping learning going through a time of many changes! We are building a plane while flying it.

a. Break Out Rooms - Teachers use small group structures to facilitate peer-to-peer support, breaking down concepts into small chunk pieces and providing guidance to students.

b. OneNote/Hand-written notes - Teachers ask students to think about what they learned, how they learned it, what questions they have about the concepts or skills covered, and what support they need to continue improving.

c. One on One/Office Hours - Teachers assign students designated time to meet with them and raise concerns or questions they may have regarding content, assignments, positive relationship-building, etc.

d. Online Quizzes and Tests - Teachers use online forms in Microsoft Teams or other online tools that are compatible with Microsoft Teams so that immediate feedback is provided.

e. Practice and Review - Teachers incorporate Kahoot, Khan Academy, NoRedInk, Quizlet and other tools to assess gaps and growth in student learning.

f. Research and Exploration - Teachers assign students to research a topic or issue and crowd-source the information they collect. Teachers assign students to research a topic or issue and crowd-source the information they find using online resources, ex. Padlet and Flipgrid.

g. Videos and Images - Teachers use short video clips or images to create visual examples which model content for student questioning and discovery.

"Integrity is telling myself the truth and honesty is telling other people the truth." Spencer Johnson

The foci of the Expect Respect campaign for the month of March are Honesty and Integrity:

Integrity is the foundation for social justice and a core value for #ThePack. Without the integrity to challenge the status quo and to speak truth to power, even in the face of overwhelming odds or personal harm, there never could have been any progress made towards equity and justice in our society. The integrity to do the right thing versus the legal thing, to intervene versus be a bystander, to speak up for justice versus remaining silent to injustice. Every effort by every individual towards equity and equality has been and is rooted in integrity. To act with integrity is to #ActLikeAHusky

Honesty is a byproduct of integrity. Honesty allows a person to admit what we don't know. By that same token, honesty also empowers a person to speak the truth regardless of any extraneous factors attempting to influence them. Honesty can be and is more than words. Honesty is pursuing your true dreams and not what society tells you is possible. Honesty is creating an identity that truly represents who you are. Honesty empowers people to break self-destructive habits and face their causes. Honesty is freedom. Honesty is #TheMarygroveWay.

These are the Expect Respect Initiatives for the month of March to celebrate Honesty and Integrity.

Poetry Slam - Students can create poems centered around honesty and integrity. Students will have the option to recite their poems at a school-wide event. Students can submit their poems via this survey link.

Free expression through art - Students can submit virtual posters, collages, free writes, drawing/paintings, etc. centered around honesty and integrity. Students will have the opportunity to present and explain their artwork and its connection to honesty and integrity at a school-wide event. Students can submit their art via this survey link.

Honest letter to a historical figure - Students can write an open letter to a historical figure of their choosing giving their honest thoughts and opinions on their life and accomplishments. Students can use their letters as a form of recognition and praise for the efforts of little-known historical figures, like Claudette Colvin, or as a referendum and rejection of known racists and bigots like J. Edgar Hoover. Students can submit their letters via this survey link.

Honest letter to your representatives - Students can write an open letter to their current local, state, or federal representatives giving their thoughts on the decisions they have made regarding their return to school and COVID 19. Students are encouraged to write their raw, visceral, and completely honest thoughts about their representatives' decisions and express how those decisions have impacted them. Students who consent will have their letters mailed to the representative that their letter is addressed to. Students can submit their letters via this survey link.

PSA Videos – Student/Staff testimonial - Students can record a public service announcement about why integrity and honesty are important character traits for all Huskies to practice and develop. Video submissions will be played at a school-wide event and be used during the orientation of new students in the future! Students can submit their videos via this survey link.

"Honesty is the fastest way to prevent a mistake from turning into a failure."

James Altucher

"Being honest may not get you a lot of friends, but it'll always get you the right ones."

John Lennon

"Honesty and integrity are absolutely essential for success in all areas of life."

Zig Ziglar

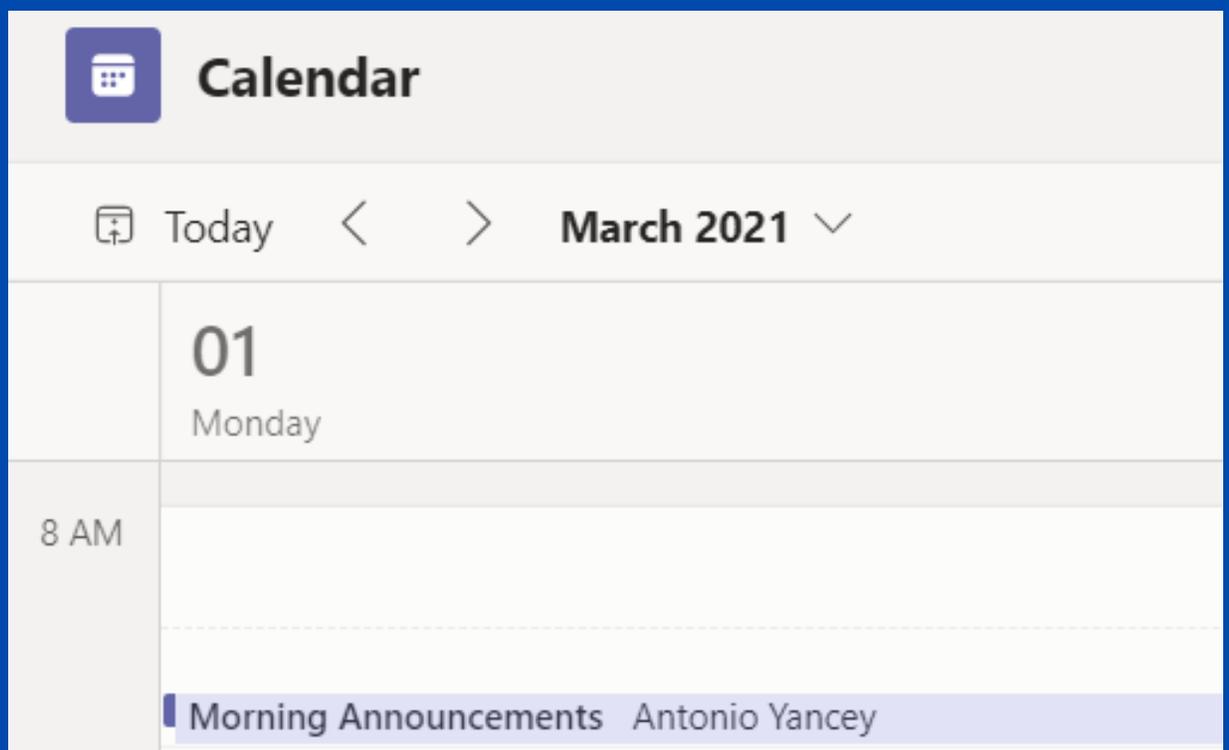

"You're only responsible for being honest, not for someone else's reaction to your honesty."
