The faculty at Sampson is bringing their personal support and awareness to the 2021 fight against cancer. Every Thursday in October, the staff is wearing their Tackle Cancer T-Shirt and other pink items to encourage those winning against cancer.

Students are also participating by being allowed to wear their bets pink each week.

What can you do to show your support during Cancer Awareness Month?

Supporting Cancer Awareness

